

Our library has SCIENCE ONLINE

The perfect resource for science research, homework help, diagrams & experiments,
science videos, and much more!

The laptop screen shows the Infobase Science Online website. The header includes the Infobase logo, the title "Science Online", a search bar, and navigation links: Home, Browse, Curriculum Tools, Search Options, and Sources. Below the header, there are three main sections: "eLearning Modules" with three cards for "The Plant World", "The Human Body", and "Physics in Action"; "Featured Videos and Animations" with three video thumbnails for "Theory of Evolution and Darwin", "Clouds, Precipitation, and Storms", and "Meridians and Time Zones"; and "Browse Resources" with a list of categories: Diagrams, Experiments, Tables and Data, Timelines, Topics A to Z, and Videos and Animations. A "Topic Centers" section on the right lists: Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth Science, and Environmental Science.
